We held an election for Chairwoman and for secretary. Ms. Leta Johnson will remain as the chairwoman, and myself Jennifer Robinson will remain as secretary.

Board members received Oct, and Nov, financials. Chairwoman Leta Johnson made a motion to accept, I Jennifer Robinson also voted to Accept. So, motion passed.

Chairwoman Leta Johnson and myself Jennifer Robinson signed nepotism forms for 2021.

The law suit by Maria Vasquez is still in discovery.

German township rental fees have increased due to extra cleaning supplies and time it takes to clean. Due to covid.

Trustee McClanahan let the board and people in attendance know that a complaint filed by board member Dolores Schosker. To the department of the PACA regarding the financial records, the names and amounts of people receiving checks. Stating the Trustee violated the access to Public Records act. The finding of the PACA recommends that the Trustee give out public record to those seeking the records during business hours. Which are Monday thru Friday from 1:30 to 3:30.

The recommendations are as follows. The Trustee will provide information to the board. The board should also be mindful of the operational considerations of a Trustee and be a good steward of sensitive or unfinalized material.
